

TRAVEL DIRECTIONS TO NATIONAL PARK ZUID-KENNEMERLAND

By bike FROM HAARLEM STATION:

- Rent a bike at the railway station of Haarlem
- Leave the station at main side (south), go to the right, and at the end of the station turn right
- You will pass under the railways, at the end turn left (traffic lights)
- Follow this main street (Statenbolwerk) till the next traffic lights. Continue the main road (now called: Verspronckweg)
- You will come at a roundabout, turn left here (sign say: to Zandvoort)
- Again you will pass under railways, pretty soon you will come at next roundabout; go straight ahead here (road called: Julianalaan)
- Road will go slightly uphill (dunes!) and at next roundabout: go straight ahead.
- You come on a bike path next to the main road, road will go slightly down again. Mainroad is called: Zeeweg
- After some two hundred meter you will find the entrance of the National Park Zuid-Kennemerland at your right hand side
- Enter the park, here is a parking place and Visitor Centre Kennemerduinen, a café and the starting point of several bike routes and bike paths

Walking FROM OVERVEEN STATION:

- Leave Overveen station and turn left
- Walk along the road till you come at a Y-junction
- Take the road to the left (there is a separate footpath along it)
- At the end of this road turn right (also a separate footpath)
- When you come at a roundabout first go straight ahead till you are at the right side of the main road (called Zeeweg, the mainroad to Zandvoort), then turn left
- Walk along this footpath for some two hundred meters until the entrance of the National Park Zuid-Kennemerland at your right hand side
- Enter the park, here is a parking place and Visitor Centre Kennemerduinen, a café and the starting point of several bike routes and bike paths
